

Celebration of Storytelling

For Parents and Children Ages 2-6 Years Old

presented by Carol Garboden Murray, Nancy Van Laan & Karen Pillsworth

Join us in celebrating the 60th anniversary of the Rosendale Library with an exciting morning of storytelling by professional authors and storytellers.

- A retired kindergarten teacher will delight the audience with a classic tale told in the oral tradition
- A local children's book author will read stories from her published collection
- A local author will tell stories that engage children by using felt props and sign language
- Songs and crafts will build on the storytelling experiences
- The celebration will include an anniversary cake marking this milestone in our library's history.

Saturday, April 14, 2018 10:00 - 11:30 a.m.

Rosendale Recreation Center

Reservations are requested.

Please sign up in the library or email info@friendsofrl.org

Carol Garboden Murray is the Director of the Nursery School at Bard College, author of Simple Signing with Young Children, and parent to two sons. Nancy Van Laan has written many books perfect for reading aloud, including With a Whoop and a Holler, an American Library Association Notable Book; and the 1990 Parents' Choice Award winner, Possum Come a-Knockin'. She is a parent of three children and grandmother of four. Karen Pillsworth is a professional storyteller.
